Village in the Desert. To travel through the desert on the camel is to reap a harvest of new and vivid experiences. After a long and tedious journey—and the "ship of the desert" is not the most comfortable mode of travel—welcome is the sight of a village, near an oasis with a well and palm trees, and the promise of rest and refreshment.

Can I have my lesson
on Thursday instead
of Wednesday this week, because I have to be at school all
Wednesday evening,
if I have my lesson.
I shall not get any work
done.

Dear Rheta. Just one more
for your album.
Very best love.
